Local Chef and Wine Pioneer Team Up for 2018 Lifestyle Experience

New Restaurant & Tasting Rooms to open in prime Woodinville location

For Immediate Release: Seattle-Woodinville, WA, December 11, 2017

Spring of 2018 brings a new dining and tasting room experience to the heart of wine country, thanks to an exciting chef and one of Washington's most renowned wine pioneers. Seattle/Woodinville area Chef Breanna Beike is opening her Heritage Restaurant | Bar in a coveted spot in the epicenter of Woodinville. Under the same roof, winery owner and grape-growing pioneer Butch Milbrandt will be expanding his two wine brands with two new tasting rooms-Milbrandt Vineyards and Ryan Patrick Wines.

Beike and Milbrandt have been long-time friends looking for ways to share their love of food, wine, and community. When the 6000 square-foot space (formerly known as Mazatlán Restaurant) in the Hollywood Hills District became available, the two seized the opportunity to divide it into three unique experiences. With shared wine club events and benefits, the location will become a food and wine lovers' paradise. Scheduled to open this spring, the restaurant and both tasting rooms have adjacent patios primed for outdoor fun.

“It was clear when Breanna started cooking for wine club events at our Prosser tasting room, she was passionate about sharing the transformative secrets of great food and wine pairings,” said Milbrandt. “We both get a kick out of seeing the joy on someone’s face when they discover how to elevate their dining experience by choosing food and wine that complement each other.”

Heritage Restaurant|Bar is a locally owned, full service establishment. The menu reflects modern American food and beverage offerings. Chef/owner Breanna Beike, is fashioning her restaurant as a community hub and casual meeting place. A restaurant and bar where residents gather often, tourists don't feel like tourists and the food and drinks are approachable and modestly priced. Heritage is family friendly, great for date-night and a wine tourist's “not to be missed” location.

For the tasting rooms, Butch Milbrandt is aiming to elevate wine flights with live virtual sips and pairing tips from celebrity sommeliers via satellite and Facebook Live. With approachable wine tastings, he's giving customers the option to learn about food and wine in a laid-back environment. In addition, “co-loft pairings” are scheduled where Washington winemakers gather to bounce ideas off each other and share vertical tastings. All the while, patrons get to listen in and taste different brands side by side. Gorgeous feature installations will include giant AVA walls. Milbrandt Vineyards will focus on the Wahluke Slope and Ancient Lakes AVAs while Ryan Patrick Wines will focus on Yakima Valley and Red Mountain AVAs, giving wine lovers the opportunity to compare the same varietals from different wine growing regions.

The restaurant and tasting rooms will become an easy, fun, come – as – you – are location in the Hollywood Hills District. A terminus in vibrant Woodinville, all three spaces are destined to attract nearby residents and the many wine and food lovers visiting the area as wine destination travelers.

About Heritage Restaurant I Bar:

Heritage Restaurant I Bar is a locally owned, full service establishment. Sharing a roof with Milbrandt Vineyards and Ryan Patrick Wines, the menu reflects modern American food and beverage offerings. A Woodinville resident, chef/owner Breanna Beike is fashioning her restaurant as a community hub and casual meeting place. The restaurant includes a bar, private dining room with 114 comfortable seats, and a seasonal patio. The completely reimagined restaurant is defined by a look and feel that promotes conversation, with a patina that only time can impart. Rustic wood, barn style doors, muted tones of vintage blue, gray and antique red set the scene in a space that is a mix of reclaimed and new. Doors open this spring in the heart of Woodinville, WA Wine Country. Hours of Operation: Lunch 11 to 2pm Daily, Happy Hour 3-6:30pm Mon-Fri, Dinner 5 to 10pm Daily, Brunch Sat & Sun, Seasonal Patio, Private Dining Room.

About Milbrandt Vineyards

Pioneer of the Columbia Valley wine region, Butch Milbrandt saw potential in Eastern Washington. He's one of the first to drive a stake into what is now known as a world-class wine destination. In 1997, this fourth-generation farmer took a risk in planting grapes and soon became recognized for helping establish two of the top AVAs in Washington State: Ancient Lakes and Wahluke Slope. The Milbrandts are celebrating nearly two decades of 90-point wines. Over 12 varietals have been awarded "Best Buy" or "Editor's Choice" by Wine Enthusiast. Now a multi-generational brand with Butch and his son Buck taking the lead, Milbrandt Vineyards remains a symbol of perseverance and reward. A premium wine tier as well as an introductory wine tier is available nationwide, both delivering uncompromising quality.

About Ryan Patrick Wines

Butch Milbrandt purchased Ryan Patrick Wines because the brand's quality consistently outperforms its price point and the history of the hard-working family behind it is bona-fide Washington. Named after sons Ryan and Patrick Flanagan, the brand will continue to make approachable wines with a serious edge. With an award-winning tasting room in Leavenworth (and Woodinville location in the spring), the heart of the brand is artisanal winemaking where the grape is at the center, allowing the fruit to speak for itself. Several of its wines won double gold and gold at the Seattle Wine Awards including the 2015 Rock Island Chardonnay and the 2014 Reserve Syrah.
